Parkview Pediatric Registered Dietitians

Meet Parkview's four Registered Dietitians specializing in pediatric nutritional needs

With over 30 years of combined experience, the pediatric dietitians specialize in the growing needs of infants, toddlers, children, adolescents, and teenagers. They advise patients and their families on developing healthy eating habits and treating health issues. Each pediatric dietitian has a unique specialty from eating disorders, GI disorders, feeding difficulty, weight gain, diabetes, and childhood obesity. You can make a referral to any one of the dietitians through EPIC REF 50

Please see the attachment to learn more about the talented pediatric Registered Dietitians and the other 24 outpatient Registered Dietitians serving the Parkview Health system and how to make an appropriate referral.
